

Team Sportsmanship Liaison

1. Identify yourself to your opponent's TSL and to the referee.
2. Monitor the spectator sideline for appropriate behavior.
3. Should you have any concerns, contact your club representative.

Proper sideline behavior includes:

Treating the referee(s) with respect

No criticism of officials, or their calls, during or after the game.

Treating the players with respect

Only positive comments, coaching will be left to the coach.

Treating your opponent with respect

The opponent is not the enemy.
